Daylight Lodge #385 meets at Selama Grotto on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays each month.

From the Monarch:

Prophets: The Kentucky Derby party was a great success. I thank those who participated and helped with the party. A special thanks to Hardy, our bartender, for providing ingredients and making his famous mint juleps.

June and July are quiet months except for the Supreme Council in Mobile, Alabama. David Vincent, CJ, would like to plan another membership drive picnic in October. My wife and I would like to plan a Halloween Party with prizes for costumes. No costume, you will get a face painting by the Monarch, a terrible artist.

I ask God to Bless all you Prophets and families. God Bless the United States of America, those who defend and protect us and all who are in sickness and adversity.

May the Blessings of Heaven fall on all of you.
Tom McVeigh, Monarch

From the Chief Justice:

Well it is summer time here in Florida again and that means that a lot of the Blue Lodges in the area will be going dark. BUT not your SELAMA GROTTTO! We are here all year round to support our fellow brothers and sisters. If you have not been to the Grotto recently there are a lot of changes and improvements currently going on. If you have NEVER been to the SELAMA GROTTTO now is your chance. We meet the 2nd Wednesday of every month and on every Friday night there is a potluck open to everyone and their family just bring your favorite dish and join in it also is a game night.

Speaking of food Chef Dave is back in the kitchen for meeting nights and has prepared the following menus which are meant to fill any MASONS belly and warm their hearts. For the meeting on June 11 dinner will be English beer battered fish and chips, with Dave's own famous coleslaw. For the July 9 dinner there will be meatloaf, mashed potatoes, fresh vegetables, and homemade rolls' just like your mom used to make for the holidays. The big event of the summer will come on August 13 Rib Eye Steak, Baked Potatoes, Fresh Corn on the Cob, and Garlic Bread. As you can see we eat good at the Grotto and our Friday night potluck/game nights are just as great! This is the new improved Grotto where everyone is welcome to come, enjoy, have great fun and fellowship. Come and visit with old friends or make new ones. Ask anyone there what it is like to ride on the GROTTTO parade float, the rewards of getting to work with the Cerebral Palsy group of folks that are at the GROTTTO 2 times a month 9 months out of the year, Thanksgiving, or our Christmas party that is geared just toward the young (and young at heart). Come and remember the fun of being a Mason again. We look forward to seeing all of you there.

David Vincent, CJ

Friday Night Social:

Usually every Friday at 6:30 p.m. Main dish provided, you bring the sides and desert.

Card Party:

On the second Tuesday each month, the ladies of Eastern Star join us at the hall for a card party. All are welcome. $2 covers the cost of party favors and drinks.

Units:

Cast is DARK for the spring.

Jokers have several parades coming up. Come to the meetings and events for details.

Motor Patrol meets at Elmer O. Smith on the second Saturday each month for breakfast 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.

Past Monarchs have set the date for Ladies Night Out as September 9th at Perkins.

Note: If and when you renew your license tags, Masonic Tags can be requested. Purchase benefits the Masonic Home of Florida.

Earn an Enchanted Lantern:

Need volunteers for Toothbrush drives.

Contact Bill West 804-4463 stpete002@yahoo.com

Parades:

We will be in the parades in Kenneth City and Gulfport for the 4th of July.

Also, in Gulfport we will hold a Masonic picnic. This is to introduce Masons to Selama Grotto. All Masons are welcome (and their families).

From the Sentinel:

Prophets we need to search our ranks for a Venerable Prophet (to become Master of Ceremonies next year) and a Venerable Prophet for next year.

Congratulations: Please meet Prophet Richard G. Hoover, who was elected to the position of Junior Grand Warden at the 185th. Grand Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Florida on May 26th, 2014. We salute you, Rick!
